

Naama Grinwald

050-5917191

naama.grinwald@gmail.com

Fourth year student of Industrial Engineering and Management, Ben Gurion University.

Knowledge of programming languages: SQL, R, Python, Java, VBA.

Fast learner, analytical thinking and self-motivated with ambition for excellence. Looking for a student position.

Education

2018-Today: Industrial Engineering and Management Student, Ben Gurion University, Fourth year. Specializing in information systems.

- Mentoring students for SQL & Databases Course

2006-2012: Full Matriculation, Maccabim-Reut MOR High School

- Certificate in Physics and Art majors
- Awarded certificate of outstanding academic excellence

Army Service

2013-2017: Air Force, Operations official and Planning Officer in Helicopter Squadron

- Planning and executing the unit's air and ground missions' program
- Partnership in decision-making process as part of the executive staff
- Responsible for the operational competence and adjustment of the unit's members
- Handling the unit's operation room; real-time management and troubleshooting
- Coordination and liaison between military factors, working with many people simultaneously
- Receiving a soldier excellence award, both in mandatory and permanent

Skills

- Programming Languages: SQL, R, Python, Java, VBA
- Computer Skills: Power BI, Microsoft Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Outlook

Languages: Hebrew-Native | English - Highly proficient

Interests & more

2020: SheCodes

- Python for Programmers Course
- Team member in Dell EMC Branch

2006-2012: Scouts

- Guide and chief of staff for 3 years
- Team leader in various projects and enterprises
- Responsible for children with special needs and their integration between the members of the battalion